

Ooops Correction
The photo of 3 students at Somerset School's Annual Terry Fox Run should have read
L-R: Shelby Raynes, Mandy MacLeod (who won the Terry Fox T shirt for student who raised most pledges this year) and Hannah Rogers (not Abigail Rogers as written) - all wearing Terry Fox shirts for the run.

Author Recently on Island for Book Signing Island Girl - A Triumph of the Spirit

Norma (Hickey) Dougherty, a former Island Girl, and Miss Dominion of Canada (1970) has written a memoir of her life growing up on the Island, and of fame and world travel experiences as Miss Dominion of Canada. She also competed in Miss World, Miss Queen of the Pacific, Miss Universe and Miss International pageants. Norma is the daughter of the late Marion and Charles Hickey from Darnley. She was recently on PEI for book signing at several Island locations, and her book "Island Girl - A Triumph of the Spirit" is currently available at Coles Book Store in Summerside, Indigo Book Store in Charlottetown, and Carr's Oyster Bar in Stanley Bridge.
